

☰ SECTIONS 🔍 SEARCH

THE BALTIMORE SUN

LEARN MORE ABOUT SUBSCRIPTIONS

Reverend Hezekiah Brown installation | PHOTOS

MAY 29, 2021

ADVERTISEMENT

ADVERTISEMENT

The Howard County Lynching Truth &
<https://www.baltimoresun.com/maryland/howard/columbia/cng-ho-hezekiah-brown-installation1vg-20>

Reconciliation held an event at the Ellicott City Colored School to reveal an installation for the Rev. Hezekiah Brown, who was the victim of an attempted lynching in December 1884.

Reverend Hezekiah Brown Installation

The Howard County Lynching Truth & Reconciliation, Inc., held an event at the EC Colored School to reveal an installation for Reverend Hezekiah Brown, who was the victim of an attempted lynching. (Jeffrey F. Bill/Baltimore Sun Media)

 RECOMMENDED
PHOTOS

Reverend Hezekiah Brown Installation

ADVERTISEMENT

Marlena Jareaux, one of the founders of The Howard County Lynching Truth & Reconciliation, Inc., introduces herself to those assembled. The Howard County Lynching Truth & Reconciliation, Inc., held an event at the EC Colored School to reveal an installation for Reverend Hezekiah Brown, who was the victim of an attempted lynching. (Jeffrey F. Bill/Baltimore Sun Media)

ADVERTISEMENT

Reverend Hezekiah Brown Installation

Marlena Jareaux explains the purpose of her organization and some background into Rev. Hezekiah Brown's story. The Howard County Lynching Truth & Reconciliation, Inc., held an event at the EC Colored School to reveal an installation for Reverend Hezekiah Brown, who was the victim of an attempted lynching. (Jeffrey F. Bill/Baltimore Sun Media)

ADVERTISEMENT

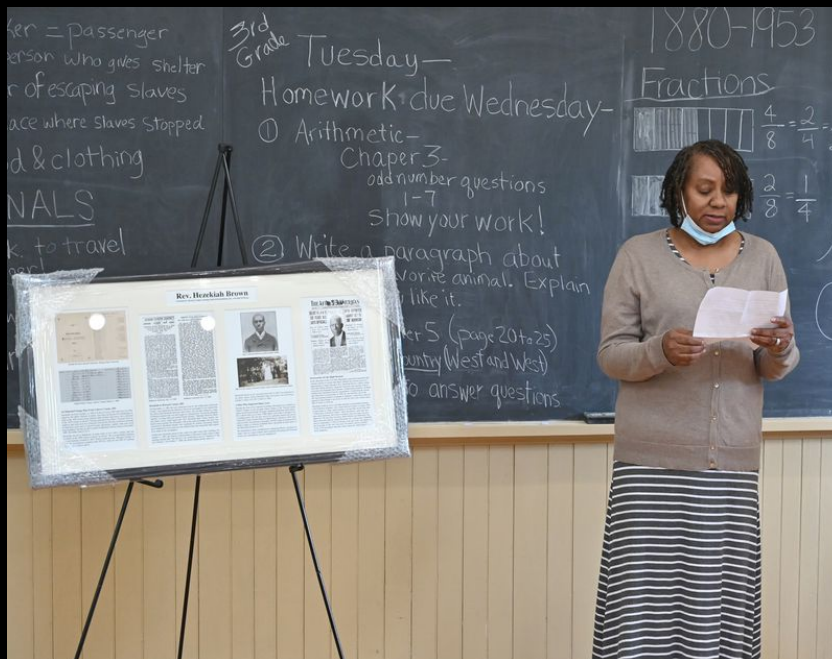

Reverend Hezekiah Brown Installation

Lynn Mumma and Marlena Jareaux unveil the Reverend Hezekiah Brown installation. The Howard County Lynching Truth & Reconciliation, Inc., held an event at the EC Colored School to reveal an installation for Reverend Hezekiah Brown, who was the victim of an attempted lynching. (Jeffrey F. Bill/Baltimore Sun Media)

ADVERTISEMENT

Reverend Hezekiah Brown Installation

Gina Richardson reads a portion of the installation to those assembled. The Howard County Lynching Truth & Reconciliation, Inc., held an event at the EC Colored School to reveal an installation for Reverend Hezekiah Brown, who was the victim of an attempted lynching. (Jeffrey F. Bill/Baltimore Sun Media)

ADVERTISEMENT

Reverend Hezekiah Brown Installation

Lynn Mumma reads a portion of the installation to those assembled. The Howard County Lynching Truth & Reconciliation, Inc., held an event at the EC Colored School to reveal an installation for Reverend Hezekiah Brown, who was the victim of an attempted lynching. (Jeffrey F. Bill/Baltimore Sun Media)

ADVERTISEMENT

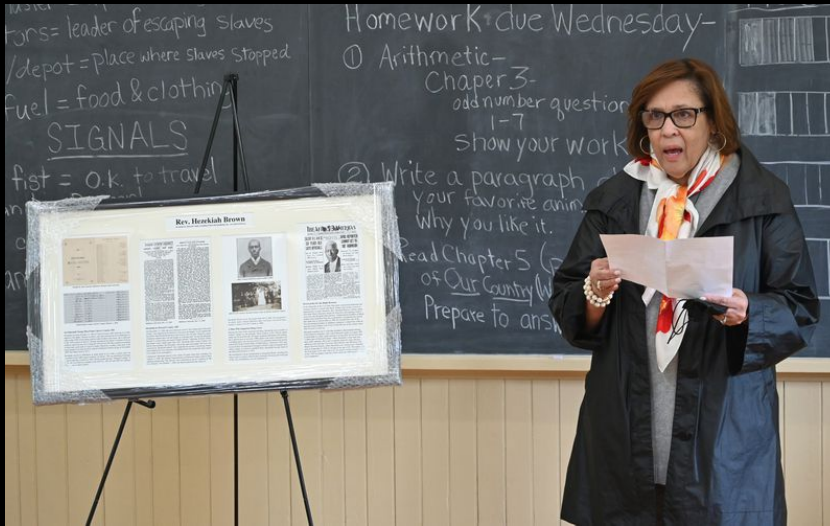

Reverend Hezekiah Brown Installation

Marlena Jareaux reads a portion of the installation to those assembled. The Howard County Lynching Truth & Reconciliation, Inc., held an event at the EC Colored School to reveal an installation for Reverend Hezekiah Brown, who was the victim of an attempted lynching. (Jeffrey F. Bill/Baltimore Sun Media)

ADVERTISEMENT

Reverend Hezekiah Brown Installation

Joy Owens reads a portion of the installation to those assembled. The Howard County Lynching Truth & Reconciliation, Inc., held an event at the EC Colored School to reveal an installation for Reverend Hezekiah Brown, who was the victim of an attempted lynching. (Jeffrey F. Bill/Baltimore Sun Media)

ADVERTISEMENT

Reverend Hezekiah Brown Installation

Liz Walsh, Chair Howard County Council, representing Ellicott City, District 1, makes remarks during the event. The Howard County Lynching Truth & Reconciliation, Inc., held an event at the EC Colored School to reveal an installation for Reverend Hezekiah Brown, who was the victim of an attempted lynching. (Jeffrey F. Bill/Baltimore Sun Media)

ADVERTISEMENT

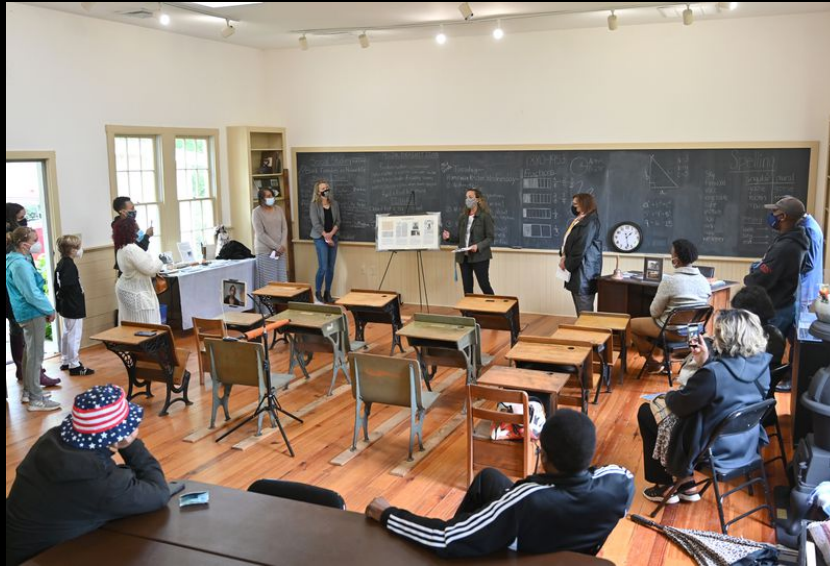

Reverend Hezekiah Brown Installation

Dr. Chao Wu, Howard County Board of Education Chair, makes remarks during the event. The Howard County Lynching Truth & Reconciliation, Inc., held an event at the EC Colored School to reveal an installation for Reverend Hezekiah Brown, who was the victim of an attempted lynching. (Jeffrey F. Bill/Baltimore Sun Media)

ADVERTISEMENT

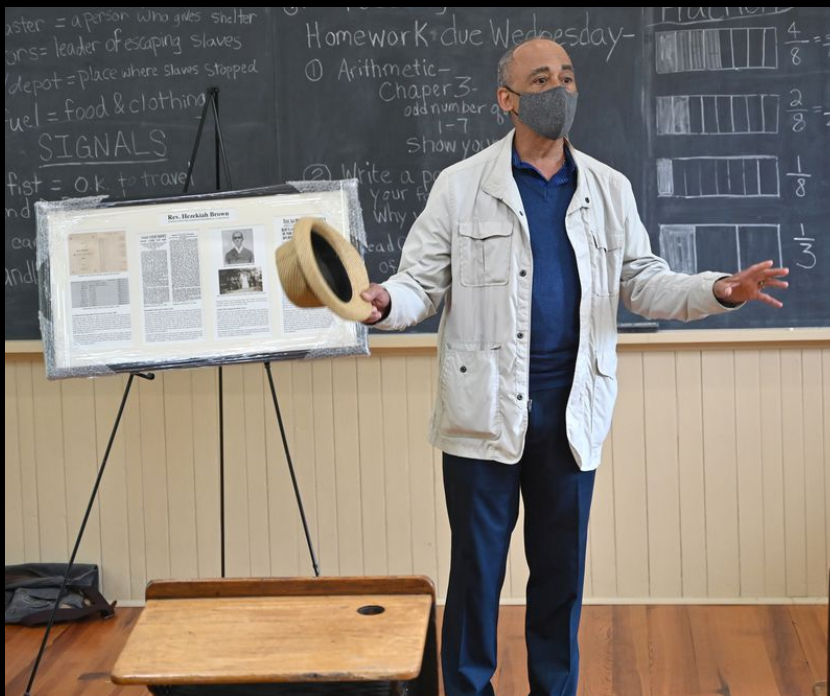

Reverend Hezekiah Brown Installation

Marlena Jareaux explains the purpose of her organization and some background into Rev. Hezekiah Brown's story. The Howard County Lynching Truth & Reconciliation, Inc., held an event at the EC Colored School to reveal an installation for Reverend Hezekiah Brown, who was the victim of an attempted lynching. (Jeffrey F. Bill/Baltimore Sun Media)

ADVERTISEMENT

Reverend Hezekiah Brown Installation

Byron C. Saunders - Arts Management Consultant / Actor / Director / Producer / Dramaturge / Historian, makes remarks during the event. The Howard County Lynching Truth & Reconciliation, Inc., held an event at the EC Colored School to reveal an installation for Reverend Hezekiah Brown, who was the victim of an attempted lynching. (Jeffrey F. Bill/Baltimore Sun Media)

ADVERTISEMENT

Reverend Hezekiah Brown Installation

C. Vernon Gray, PH.D, Administrator Office of Human Rights Howard County, former Professor of Political Science Morgan State University, makes remarks during the event. The Howard County Lynching Truth & Reconciliation, Inc., held an event at the EC Colored School to reveal an installation for Reverend Hezekiah Brown, who was the victim of an attempted lynching. (Jeffrey F. Bill/Baltimore Sun Media)

ADVERTISEMENT

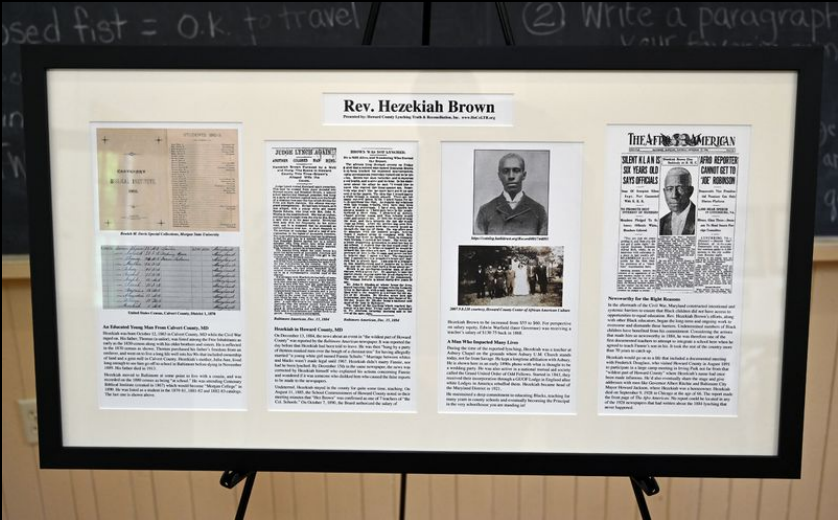

Reverend Hezekiah Brown Installation

Willie Flowers, NAACP, Howard County Branch #7020, makes remarks during the event. The Howard County Lynching Truth & Reconciliation, Inc., held an event at the EC Colored School to reveal an installation for Reverend Hezekiah Brown, who was the victim of an attempted lynching. (Jeffrey F. Bill/Baltimore Sun Media)

ADVERTISEMENT

Reverend Hezekiah Brown Installation

The Howard County Lynching Truth & Reconciliation, Inc., held an event at the EC Colored School to reveal an installation for Reverend Hezekiah Brown, who was the victim of an attempted lynching. (Jeffrey F. Bill/Baltimore Sun Media)

ADVERTISEMENT

ADVERTISEMENT

